

Class Task: Live Lab

Time Limit: 15 mins

User Registration Page:

Design a JSP page for user registration in a web application. Include form elements for capturing user details such as username, email, and password.

Implement validation to ensure that the entered email is in the correct format.

Upon successful submission, store the user information in a database/display a Success message.